BUSINESS POLL WORKER LOTTERY PROJECT
SIGN UP SHEET

Businesses wishing to participate in our “Business Poll Worker Lottery” Project must notify all of their employees, that the business will be accepting names of those interested in going through the county government sponsored poll worker training and becoming poll workers on Election Day. Taking into consideration capacity and staffing issues, the participating business must select, at random, a certain number of employees. Those employees will go through the poll worker training and will work the polls on Election Day. The business hereby agrees to compensate the employees for training and working the polls in the same manner that they would be compensated if at their regular jobs.
